

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN WILL GREET QUEEN CITY PARTY

STRIKE WILL NOT PREVENT COMING OF CINCIANNATIANS

Special Train Bearing 100 Prominent Men from Cincinnati Will Be Here at 11:00 Wednesday Morning, and Public Meeting Will Be Held on Court House Lawn Where Concert and Addresses Will Take Place.

A great amount of interest centers around the visit of about 100 members of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, which occurs Wednesday morning of this week, and arrangements are now under way to have a large number of local business men meet the Queen City men during the hour they will be in this city.

The train arrives at 11:10 o'clock coming over the Pennsylvania railroad, and will leave one hour later. Walter Draper, president of the Chamber of Commerce and former resident of this city, is expected to be among the prominent men who will stop here.

Mr. Herbert Brownell is chairman of the reception committee in this city, and arrangements have been made for a meeting on the court house lawn, and every business man in the city is urged to be present and meet the visitors and help show that Washington is really a live city.

Some question has been raised as to whether or not the party would make the trip, owing to the street car strike in Cincinnati, but all doubt about that is put to flight by a letter received by Mayor Smith bearing date of May 16th, and which reads:

Hon. Harve W. Smith, Mayor.
Dear Sir:—We wrote you on May 6th in reference to the visit of about 100 members of our Chamber of Commerce to your city on next Wednesday, May 21st, on our Trade Excursion through southern Ohio, arriving at 11:10 a. m. over the Pennsylvania and leaving at 12:10 p. m. for Circleville.

Can you advise us if any arrangements have been made to facilitate a meeting between the business men of Washington and the members of our party? In nearly every city that we visit such arrangements have been made, usually providing for a meeting in some central place such as the court house or some convenient hall where we can give a short concert by Weber's band which we will have with us, and where we can have some short talks by speakers representing Washington and Cincinnati.

As we would like to know as far in advance as possible of the location of such meeting place, and other arrangements which have been made, will you please take this up with the officers of any commercial organization you may have in Washington, or with some of the leading business men, and let us know by return mail if possible, if we may expect to meet a good number of your citizens?

Thanking you in advance for your co-operation, we remain,
Very truly yours,
Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce,
Carl Dehoney,

LEG CUT OFF BY PENNSYLVANIA TRAIN

Charles Logan, colored, residing at Wilmington, fell under the evening Pennsylvania passenger train Sunday night and one leg was crushed above the knee, making amputation necessary.

The man had been aboard the train and when it started he arose to leave, but in stepping to the ground his foot slipped and he rolled beneath the trucks.

No blame is attached to the train crew, as the man is said to have held no ticket, and was leaving the train at his own risk.

NOTABLE VICTORY REWARDS EFFORTS OF WASHINGTON HIGH SCHOOL TRACK TEAM

LOCAL ATHLETES WIN OVER THREE OTHER TRACK TEAMS

Silver Loving Cup Given in Ohio University Interscholastic Meet Carried Off by Washington Boys Who Win Six Firsts, Four Seconds and One Third in Contests on Ohio University Track.

The Washington track team covered itself with honor at the Ohio University Interscholastic meet held on the Ohio University field at Athens Saturday, winning 6 firsts, 4 seconds and 1 third, making a total of 43 points, while Pomeroy was second with 27 points, Marietta 3rd with 25 points and Athens last with 19 points.

It was an easy victory for the local athletes, and Carl Beck was the only man entered by the local school who failed to get a first or second.

Casey and Edwards, of Washington, and Jennings, of Athens, were all that qualified for the finals of the 100 yard dash, when Casey won easily with Edwards a good second. Paul Craig, who surprised every one by winning the high hurdles at Columbus, repeated the trick by taking the same event from the Athens and Pomeroy high jumpers. Bob Lammie, the crack low hurdler again carried W. H. S. colors to the front in his event, with apparent ease. Stevens, Washington's strong half miler, ran a pretty race, using his head like a veteran and winning easily by at least 20 yards. The 220 yard dash was all Washington's with Edwards first, Casey second and Whitting, of Marietta, third. Jack DeWitt won

BRONCHITIS SUFFERER.
Takes Druggists' Advice With Splendid Result.
If any one should know the worth of a medicine, it is the retail druggist who sells it over his counter every day in the week, and is in a position to know what remedy gives the best satisfaction.
Mrs. Frank H. Uline, of West Sand Lake, N. Y., says: "For a number of years I was a great sufferer from bronchitis. Last July I had an attack which was more severe than any and my friends thought I could not recover from it. Then I was advised by my druggist to try Vinol, which I did with wonderful results. My cough has left me! I have gained in weight and appetite and I am as strong as ever I was. I advise all who have bronchitis, chronic coughs, or who are run-down to try Vinol."
It is the combined action of the medicinal curative elements of the cod's liver, without oil, aided by the blood-making and strength-creating properties of tonic iron that makes Vinol so efficient in such cases.
Remember, we guarantee Vinol to do just what we say—we pay back your money if it does not. Blackmer & Tanquary, Druggists, Washington C. H., Ohio.

ANOTHER FROST FALLS LAST NIGHT

Another frost was reported Monday morning from various parts of the county, but it is thought it did little damage to growing crops owing to the light of the moon.

The weather was unseasonably cold and much fear was entertained lest the frost would prove a killing one, as such a frost would have done thousands of dollars more damage than if it had come the first of last week.

EXCITEMENT CAUSED BY RUNAWAY HORSE

Monday morning, while Carl Smith was driving a horse attached to the Will Martin delivery wagon, and when opposite the Hopkins' residence on Washington avenue, the bolt holding the whiffletree snapped, the horse became frightened and ran away coming up through the main part of town on Court street on the south sidewalk, falling heavily in front of Gossard's jewelry store where it was captured.

Carl was jerked from the rig but escaped serious injuries, although holding to the lines until he was dragged some distance.

When the horse reached the central part of town and was dashing up the sidewalk with the swinging whiffletree striking it about the legs a number of pedestrians who were in its path barely reached places of safety as it dashed by.

Upon reaching the Gossard corner it stumbled and fell, sliding 20 feet. Before it could arise a man ran up and prevented it from struggling to its feet. A few painful bruises is the only injury it suffered.

We beg to state that the Ohio Mausoleum Company, of this city, is a responsible concern and thoroughly reliable and to the best of our knowledge have carried out all contracts they have made in an agreeable manner. Owing to receiving letters from different cities where they are engaged in business, and where they have completed mausoleums, we have investigated their method of doing business, as well as inquiring of crypt owners their opinion of the mausoleums. In every instance we have learned of complete satisfaction.

IN SOCIETY

Miss Grace Ogle gave a charmingly appointed small "Bridge" Saturday night in compliment to Mrs. Frank C. Parrett's guest, Mrs. Harry Christopher, of London. There were no prizes, but Miss Ogle presented the honor guest and Mrs. John I. Cassidy, of Washington, D. C., with a beautiful corsage bouquet of Ward roses.

Fifteen girls, the majority High school seniors, enjoyed an exceptionally handsome six o'clock dinner at the delightful country home of Mr. and Mrs. Mart L. McCoy, Saturday night, in honor of the birthday of their daughter, Miss Ruth.

It was a gathering of pretty "buds" in dainty summer frocks, the charming young hostess receiving in a becoming gown of Alice Blue, trimmed in rose.

A novel way of finding the dinner places was introduced through water colored place cards, painted by

Miss Mary Collins, the initials of noted people on the cards matching those of the guests.

The table was beautiful, pink and white carnations forming central embellishment and candle shedding mellow light at each place. At the close of the dinner each guest blew out her candle with a wish for the hostess, who responded to the good wishes with much cheerfulness. An elaborate dinner of five courses was served.

The after-dinner hour was passed with music and dancing and the bright moonlight night attracted to the large lawn.

Beautiful birthday gifts were showered upon Miss McCoy. Misses Doris McCoy and Louise Melvin assisted and the guests were Misses Jane Saxton, Dorothy Fullerton, Anna Fenner, Ruth Craig, Katherine Mark, Marie Mobley, Lillian Davis, Ruth Smith, Alice Parrett, Mary Weaver, Mary Collins, Mary Taylor, Anna Connor, Sara Holmes.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS

Mr. Claude Post was down from Columbus spending Sunday with his parents, Hon. and Mrs. J. D. Post.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Squier and son, Alvin, of Greenfield, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Leland Sunday.

Mr. Harry Turnipseed, of Columbus, spent Sunday the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bryson.

Mrs. Griffiths, of Union City, Ind., came over Saturday to be the guest of her son, Mr. Howard Griffiths and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Miss Edyth Blackman and John Dittmer, motored to Lancaster Sunday, and Mrs. Louise Eberly returned with them for a few days' visit with their niece, Mrs. Chas. Johnson.

Miss Anne Lawrence and Miss Marie Melvin were the over Sunday guests of Mrs. Willard Creamer, of near West Lancaster.

AUTO PLUNGES INTO DANGEROUS WASHOUT

Saturday night, T. P. Sites and Chas. Bloomer nearly met death in the neighborhood of Harrisburg, south of Columbus, when the touring car in which they were driving, plunged into a fifteen-foot washout which had been left unprotected by danger lights.

They were just rounding a turn in the road going at about 45 miles an hour when the abyss loomed up just a few feet ahead, and before the car could be retarded in speed it struck the washout, plunging to the bottom and coming to a sudden stop.

The two men were severely shaken but were not injured, while the only damage done to the car was the breaking of the front lights.

Residents of the neighborhood assisted in hoisting the car out where it could again reach the roadway, and the journey to Columbus was made without further incident.

A number of persons have narrowly escaped going into the nighted chasm.

STORES WILL CLOSE ONE HOUR WEDNESDAY

The committee in charge of receiving the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce Wednesday morning at 11:10 are making arrangements for having the stores of the city close for one hour while the business men from Cincinnati are here, and many have already agreed to the plan.

The officials of the Retail Grocers' Association have announced that stores will be closed during the time the Chamber of Commerce members are here.

Congressman J. D. Post has been retained by the committee to make the speech on behalf of the business men of this city. The meeting will be held on the court house lawn.

NOT ONE PINCHED

Pat's Whisper it gently. A big cock fight was pulled off Friday night, with an attendance of about sixty and plenty of money and no one got pinched. The affair was staged just over the divide in pike county, so it is said, not far, however, from the old-time haunts of game birds from Columbus and Chillicothe, as well as Chillicothe, were in the ring, each with good backing.

Chillicothe sportsmen, it is claimed, won most of the money, thus proving that the flood didn't wipe out the supply of game chickens here at least. Chillicothe Gazette.

FRANCHISE GRANTED IN GREENE COUNTY

After several days' delay from the time it was presented to them, the Greene county commissioners have granted a franchise to the Logan Gas and Fuel company to lay their mains through that county.

The line passes near Danville in Madison county, and only a few smaller towns were fortunate enough to secure a tappings of the main. In Greene county the commissioners would not grant the franchise until certain villages were provided for.

DON GEER AGAIN UNDER ARREST

Don Geer, the man convicted of contempt of court, and who carried the case to the higher courts where the Probate Court was upheld, was re-arrested Monday by Deputy Sheriff A. C. Nelson, upon a warrant issued by the Probate court because of his failure to comply with the orders of the Probate court.

Geer was lodged in the county jail for the time being.

PROWLERS BUSY ABOUT THE CITY

Saturday night some unknown man entered the residence of Mr. H. B. Dahl on Washington avenue, and the Pinkerton home on East street, but in each instance they were frightened away before anything was stolen. The prowler evidently walked away from the Pinkerton residence and went to the Dahl residence, where he deliberately walked in and when discovered, hurried out.

Sunday night a prowler visited the Mrs. Thomas Saxton home, but was frightened away before he had gotten entirely inside the house.

Some one also stole a speeder from Jesse, husband of the Carson agent, Saturday night, but by using the telegraph it was located at State Mills. The night police have been instructed to keep a sharp look-out for suspicious characters.

SCOUTS MEET TONIGHT

The Boy Scouts of Washington will meet tonight at 7:30 at the Y. M. C. A. in preparation for the G. A. R. encampment.

Four patrols were recently organized for special work during the encampment and these are now busy drilling and studying.

Two patrols are to be used as escorts and messengers, one patrol is to be mounted for street duty, and the other patrol will assist the officers on the streets in handling traffic.

The big camp for all Scouts is being planned to be held during July. This is to be the greatest event for the Scouts during the summer.

WORK ON DEPOT EXPECTED SOON

It has been announced that the flood damage will not interfere with the building of the new D. T. & I. combination freight and passenger station in this city, and that it will be constructed as announced a few months ago.

The money has been appropriated for the building, and the erection of the structure is now in the hands of the chief of the construction department.

Work on the new station may be expected within the next few weeks it is claimed.

TROOP TRAIN PASSES THROUGH THE CITY

A special train on the B. & O. railroad containing a large number of troops, mostly colored, passed through this city Sunday morning at 10:10 o'clock bound for the West, ostensibly for service in the Philippine islands, but probably to have in readiness for eventualities in California.

The train contained six or eight coaches, and all of the troops were regulars and equipped for service. Thirty-six of them were from the Columbus Barracks.

The movement of troops at this time is regarded as very significant, and much interest attaches to the movement.

DELIVERS STRONG ADDRESS TO MEN

Rev. G. W. Brown, of Youngstown, delivered one of the strongest addresses ever given at the local Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon, to quite a number of men and boys.

Rev. Brown did not talk on the subject announced, but chose for his topic "The Bunch of Golden Keys", and few speakers have ever swayed their audience like he did in the splendid address delivered. Some who attended pronounced it equal to any address they ever heard.

How Representative Men

OFFICE
HOLDERSBy WILLIAM H.
MANN, Governor of Virginia

ALL PUBLIC OFFICIALS SHOULD BE EXEMPT FROM FEDERAL INCOME TAX, because if the salaries of state officials were subject to an income tax the federal government could destroy the state government.

INCOME
MEANING

By Representative CORDELL

HULL, Who Drew the Bill

ESTIMATE that more than 1,000,000 people will contribute to the income tax. About 1,000,000 of them will pay the normal tax—that is, 1 per cent on incomes in excess of $4,000 per year and less than $20,000 per year. The number of contributors to the higher tax for incomes more than $20,000 per year I cannot even guess.

HARD TO UNDERSTAND

By LAWSON PURDY, President

ment

THE income tax is HARD TO UNDERSTAND because the sentences are long, the paragraphs are long, and frequently the early parts of paragraphs are modified by lengthy provisos.

WAR TAX OF '98 BETTER

By WILLIAM M. CALDER, Congressman of Brooklyn

THE income tax is all right, but instead of that method of taxation I would like to see a tax similar to the war tax of 1898 in the form of stamps on patent medicine, on legal documents, etc. Such a tax would be easy to collect.

HIEROGLYPHICS IN OLD CAVE.

Carved Pictures of Indians Crudely
Drawn Are Found.

Ogden, Utah. With what appears to be prehistoric hieroglyphics carved on its walls, a mammoth cave, rivaling the famous cave of Kentucky, was discovered in this vicinity. Thomas Whitaker, a rancher, made the discovery. He will lead a party of University of Utah professors on a tour of investigation.

The cave is located in the mountains near Promontory point, eighteen miles from Ogden, and probably never has been visited by white men, as the surrounding country is a blank desert.

MAKES

CITIZENSBy ROBERT J.
LOWRY, Bank
President of
Atlanta, Ga.

IT seems but just that each man enjoying an income, whether that income be $500 or $50,000 a year, should bear his part of the public burden. It will MAKE A BETTER CITIZEN OF HIM.

BURDEN
ON POLICY
HOLDERSBy WILLIAM A.
DAY, Life Insurance President

THE income tax as it relates to life insurance companies is difficult to understand. Whatever the intent may have been, the language used is clearly open to the interpretation that policy holders will be required to pay THREE TAXES in addition to the tax already required on their premiums by the states, making four taxes in all.

UNWORKABLE

By ROBERT H. MONTGOMERY,
President of the American Association of Public Accountants

THE phraseology in the present income tax is almost the same as that in the corporation tax law and is EQUALLY UNWORKABLE. It calls for a report based on income actually received, less expenses actually paid. Few partnerships and corporations of the country could prepare such a report without REWRITING ALL OF THEIR BOOKS.

ILLNESSES TAXED

tary of the New York Board of Trade and TransportationILLNESSES INVOLVING SURGI-CAL OPERATIONS, THE AT-TENDANCE OF NURSES and so on are taxed, but they often cause expenditures equal to losses arising from "fires, storms and shipwrecks."

TAX TOO SMALL

By VICTOR L. BERGER, Former
Socialist Member of CongressI DON'T think that the rate proposed for big incomes is nearly high enough. I believe that $4,000 is the right point to start at, but the big incomes ought to be TAXED TWEN-TY-FIVE PER CENT OR MORE.

The first chapter of the series is to be 150 yards, 11 feet high, and the walls bear pictures of Indians, crudely drawn.

There is an Indian legend current in this locality to the effect that a great battle was fought years ago between tribes near the point, the vanquished having disappeared in a cave.

Poetry For Today

THE MYSTERY DIVINE.

The stars a-tremble in the midnight air,
Alive with swift pulsations white and keen,
Thrill us with visionings of realms serene
As through the dark springtime on we fare,
The scarlet maple buds we know are there,
High on their boughs; we feel the misty green
Of unseen willows and the dew's white sheen,
Of April's hidden sanctities aware.
Now, through our soul's perceptive mood these floats
An odor sweeter than all else of earth,
The breath of hyacinths aglow, low-mid
By garden palings. Clear as melting notes
Of nightingales, it seems of Love's own birth!
So from the Unseen sweet breathings come, unbid.
—Caroline D. Swan.

5,000 COUNTRY GIRLS
SAVED THE PAST YEAR.

New York, May 19.—In the past year more than 5,000 girls who arrived in New York from the country without money or friends were saved by the Travelers' Aid society from the clutches of bad women and bad men. At piers and railroad stations they were met by men and women agents of the society, who gave them temporary aid, found respectable lodging for them and got work for them. The annual report of the society emphasizes the care and protection exerted on behalf of girls who had been lured to this city by fake advertisements.

One of the most convincing things to prove that comb honey cannot be manufactured is that an Ohio firm has had a standing offer of $1000 for nearly 20 years for one pound of comb honey made without the aid of bees. No one has come forward to claim the reward. Besides the first $1000, the amount has been raised $3000 by different societies. These offers were not made because any one wanted the manufactured article, but it was believed the delicate work of bees could not be imitated. No two combs of honey are alike.

The quantity of manufacturers' material imported into this country in 1912, as made public in a statement of Secretary Redfield, is as follows: Raw cotton, 125,000,000 pounds; raw wool, 165,000,000 pounds; fibers, 635,000,000 pounds; pig tin, 91,000,000 pounds; copper bars, 234,000,000 pounds; crude rubber, 81,000,000 pounds; hides and skins 453,000,000 pounds; boards and planks 818,000 M feet. With but two exceptions these import figures exceed any former high record.

Importers of canned goods are a little anxious to find out how the trade and public will take the uncolored peas that come from abroad, when the new pack is ready, says the New York Times. The change will be made to comply with the American Pure Food laws. It is believed, however, that when used to them, consumers will find peas in their natural state much more wholesome and appetizing than when colored.

Plans have been prepared by the D. & C. and the C. & B. Navigation company for a dock at Cleveland to cost $450,000. It will have 300 feet of shore line and extend 720 feet into the lake. Each company will have an office and a passenger station 80 feet in floor dimensions with two stories and a basement. At one end of the dock will be a concrete tower 125 feet high, surmounted by a clock.

The new bank notes which the U. S. treasury will issue sometime this year are only about two-thirds the size of the money now in circulation.

Destructive Fire.

Washington, May 19.—Fire, which threatened the destruction of the fire plant of the United States geological survey, was discovered in the building occupied by that office. The first floor of the building is occupied by stores and the office of the American Express company. The fire started in the express office. The loss is $150,000.

A man living at Auburn, New York, had a severe attack of kidney and bladder trouble. Being a working man, not wanting to lose time, nor run up a heavy doctor's bill, he cured himself completely by using Foley's Kidney Pills. A year later he says: "It is a pleasure to report that the cure was permanent." He has had no return whatever of the pain, backache and burning. His name is J. A. Farmer, and he says: "Of course I recommend Foley's Kidney Pills as a very effective cure for kidney and bladder trouble." Blackmer and Tanquary. Adv.

STATUE FOR FIGHTING GOAT.

Met and Defeated All Comers on Thanksgiving Day, 1865.

San Francisco.—Lovers of old Spanish names now seeking to have the designation "Yerba Buena" restored to Goat island, in San Francisco bay, may find that at least the physical semblance of the hated goat will remain.

The navy department not only has granted permission to the Associated Naval Veterans to erect a fifty foot statue of a goat on the top of the island, but agrees that it may be a "pagan" goat, or a "goat rampant" or both.

Permission to install, erect or superimpose the goat has been received by Commodore Browne of the Associated Veterans from the secretary of the navy. The news caused some discomfiture among members of the Native Daughters of the Golden West, who have begun a movement to have the name changed to Yerba Buena. A resolution memorializing the federal government to make the change is now before the legislature.

Attorney Anhut Convicted.
New York, May 19.—John N. Anhut was convicted of attempted bribery by the jury before which he has been on trial in connection with an attempt to free Harry K. Thaw from Matteawan by alleged illegal means. The young lawyer will be sentenced tomorrow by Supreme Court Justice Seabury.

FARMERS ARE BUSY
MAKE GOOD HEADWAY

Taken as a whole it has been a splendid week for the farmer, and he has been busy every moment. The weather would permit, with the result that the greater part of the corn has been planted, in fact, a great many of the farmers finished planting their corn this week, and some will commence plowing the latter part of next week or the first of the following week.

Sufficient rain has fallen to make the ground workable, and previous to the rains the farmers were having a difficult time trying to place some of the cloddy fields in condition for planting.

Many of the leading farmers claim the frost did not do as much damage as many claimed, and all are greatly pleased with the prospects ahead for the season.

CONFERENCES INDICATE THE END OF STREET CAR STRIKE

FORECASTS END OF BIG STRIKE

Conferences Held By Streetcar
Officials and Employees.

AMICABLE ADJUSTMENT LIKELY

Employees Who Operate Cars in Kentucky Towns Opposite Cincinnati Form a Union and Will Present Demands to the Streetcar Magnates. No Attempt Made to Run Cars and as a Result No Violence.

Cincinnati, O., May 19.—Conferences of streetcar officials and representatives of the employees' union, which it is believed will result in the ending of the streetcar strike in this city, are being held. Although the street railway company and its employees are not in direct communication, officials of both organizations hold the meetings on the same floor of an office building, but in different rooms.

The streetcar company is represented by President Schoopf and several directors and at the meeting representing the employees are John Mahon, president of the international streetcar union, Rezin Orr, organizer of the present strike, and local officials of the organization. Walter Knight, president of the Federated Association of Municipal Organizations, acts as intermediary.

Though no definite statement was given out, it was believed that only minor differences remain to be adjusted and that a speedy resumption of traffic will take place. It is not known whether the streetcar company has yielded to the demand for recognition of the union, but it is believed that it is willing to arbitrate this point.

No attempt was made to run cars and there was no violence. The application for a receivership of the company made by Mayor Henry T. Hunt came up today before Judge George Hagan, who heard arguments of the attorneys for the streetcar company.

The employees of the Cincinnati, Newport and Covington Streetcar company, which operates cars in Kentucky cities on the opposite side of the Ohio river, will present demands to the officials of the company tonight, and threaten to strike if they are not granted. The employees recently formed a union.

All of the wounded in Saturday's rioting are improved.

In the event of further disturbances Mayor Hunt will not call on the local companies of the Ohio National Guard. Following Governor Cox's refusal to send outside troops and Attorney General Hogan's ruling that the mayor had the power to call on the Hamilton county companies, Hunt announced that he would not take the latter action. Governor Cox took the position that the mayor had not exhausted all his resources in checking disorder.

TRAVELER'S MIND A BLANK.

When Memory Returns Wanderer Is In South Dakota.

Brookings, S. D.—As Edward Jerstad, a farmer, was driving to town he saw a man staggering along the road and then fall unconscious. Jerstad put him in his buggy and hurried to Brookings. When the man regained consciousness he escaped in the temporary absence of a doctor, but was captured and confined in the county jail. For two days he refused to talk, but finally stated he was A. J. Buhlman and his home Chicago.

The last thing he remembers, he says, he was in Chicago, and he has no idea how he came to be in Brookings. He has no baggage, and trunks do not recollect the man being a passenger. Reports from Volga are to the effect that a stranger answering Buhlman's description was in that town a day or two before he appeared here and that his peculiar actions attracted attention.

SEEK CONTINENT IN REGIONS NEAR POLE

Crocker Land Expedition Will Start North In July.

New York.—Plans for the invasion of Crocker Land, which was sighted by Peary from Cape Thomas Hubbard in 1906, are rapidly progressing. When the exploration party sails from Sydney, N. S., on the whaler Diana in July, under the leadership of Donald B. MacMillan, the explorers will include a selsmograph and a complete wireless outfit in their equipment, which will be thoroughly up to date. Electricity will also be utilized for lighting, cooking the meals and heating in the remote regions of the far north.

It is proposed by members of the expedition to establish a selsmograph station at the home headquarters on the shore of Flagler bay, which will be in charge of Ensign Fitzhugh Green, U. S. N.

The object of the expedition is to discover and explore the unknown area north of the present map of the arctic regions and if conditions are favorable to penetrate the Greenland ice cap.

When the expedition was first planned MacMillan was a co-leader with the late George Borup, whose death by drowning about a year ago off Crescent Beach, Conn., caused a temporary delay of the starting of the party.

According to Peary, who was accompanied by Messrs. MacMillan and Borup on his dash to the north pole, "Of unexplored regions in the north there are remaining but two of first importance, the inland ice cap of Greenland and the area represented by the large blank space on the map bounded by Bering strait, the pole, the western border of the arctic archipelago and the known open sea north of Siberia. The theories of the coastal experts have it that within this region lies an undiscovered arctic continent or a series of large islands, the whole not greatly distant from Banks Island, Prince Patrick Island and Grant Land (the western limit of the arctic archipelago), while tradition among the Eskimos strengthens the theories in fixing the southern edge of the unknown land not far north from Point Barrow and America."

Several thousand dollars have recently been contributed to the expedition fund. The American Geographical society has added $3,000 to its previous subscription of $5,000 and Zenas Crane has increased his subscription by $2,500. Other subscriptions include $1,000 from George B. French and $100 from Colonel D. L. Brainerd. The University of Illinois has made an appropriation which provides for the addition to the party of an expert zoologist, Dr. M. C. Tanquary, a graduate of the university.

It is also proposed to establish a meteorological station on Bache peninsula. This equipment will be provided by the weather bureau. MacMillan has known the hardships of the polar regions and has voyaged off the coast of Labrador in an open canoe studying the Eskimos of that country.

The Man of Bygones.

But scant is my concern about
The troubles of to-day;
My mind reverts unto the shout
Of battles far away.
Whatever topics may unfold
I feel that duty calls
For comment on the days of old,
When Caesar fought the Gauls.

Now, though mankind plays many parts
Of righteousness or greed,
The angry tear unbidden starts
As of the days I read
When splendid warriors met the fate
That cruelly befalls
The brave, and there was valor great
When Caesar fought the Gauls.

Back, back through centuries I turn
And breathe a solemn vow;
The stories of the past I'll learn,
Nor heed the needs of now,
The chariot's rattle and the ring
Of steel in ancient brawls
Thrill me, as to those days I cling
When Caesar fought the Gauls.

"TURKEY TROT" AND "TANGO" KILLING THE WALTZ

The beautiful gliding waltz will soon be as the stately minuet of our forefathers, a thing of the past, if the craze for the "turkey trot" and the "tango," which has been taken up with a vengeance by society, keeps pace with its popularity. The picture shows society engaged in the latest steps of these dances. The upper left picture shows the "tango." The upper right is "turkey trotting" and "one-stepping." In the lower left the "tango" is being enjoyed by youngsters in their teens, and in the lower right the rhythmic steps of the latest in dancing is being enjoyed.

It is believed that the train would have gone through the gap had it come rushing down upon it at a high rate of speed.

HILL SHOW LEAVES FOR SUMMER TOUR

Harry Hill's Wild West show and Mexican bull fight troupe leaves this city within the next few days, for the regular summer tour, and will make their first appearance at Luna Park, Cleveland, where they open up on the 30th day of this month.

Mr. Hill has wintered most of the animals in and near this city, and expects to return again next fall to again spend the winter here. He will have his show at the county fair this year.

Al Sharpe, one of the men who has been with Mr. Hill, for a number of years and who will be remembered by many local citizens, is now confined to the hospital at Sioux Falls, South Dakota, as the result of a badly broken leg, the injury being sustained while he was riding a bucking broncho.

A serious shooting affray occurred at New Burlington, Clinton county, Saturday night, when one man shot another twice, inflicting injuries from which he may not recover, and another man was struck a violent blow with some heavy weapon, and his skull fractured.

The trouble is said to have occurred over a woman, and both men may die from the effects of the wounds.

COST OF LIVING ONCE HIGHER

Bean Soup Was $1 a Plate in Early California Days.

Palo Alto, Cal.—Proof that the cost of living has gone down considerably since the early days of California is produced by E. F. Weissbach of this city, who has unearthed a bill of fare provided the gold miners in 1849 by the El Dorado hotel, Placerville.

Among the delicacies mentioned are: Bean soup, $1 a plate; sauerkraut, $1; hash, low grade, 75 cents; hash, 15 cents; $1; roast beef, plain, $1; with one potato (fair size), $1.25; beef, tame (from the states), $1.50; roast grizzly, $1; two potatoes, medium size, 50 cents; two potatoes, peeled, 75 cents.

A notice at the foot of the bill of fare tells patrons that meals are payable in advance and that they will find gold scales at the end of the bar.

TARIFF BILL VOTE TO BE CLOSE ONE

Finance Committee's Changes
May Be Disregarded.

MARSHALL MAY DECIDE IT.

Vice President's Ballot May Be Needed to Pass Measure—Farmers' Unions Try to Draw Senators From Caucus Pledges—Senator Burton Sees Business Dislocation.

Washington.—As soon as the Underwood tariff bill reaches the senate it is planned to bring it forward for consideration without delay. Democratic leaders are sanguine that they will be able to put the measure through the senate in practically the same shape as it comes from the house, and this in spite of the opposition of Democratic senators from sugar growing and wool growing states, who object to the provisions taking the protective duties from these products.

There are ten Democrats and seven Republicans on the senate finance committee, which will handle the Underwood bill in the interim between its passage by the house and its consideration by the senate. Joined by two Democrats the seven Republicans on the finance committee would be able to amend the house bill with respect to sugar and wool, and there is a confident feeling among those interested in having the house rates on these products changed that the two Democratic votes will be forthcoming, with a possibility of three Democrats joining the Republicans in voting to prevent sugar from going on the free list at the end of the three year period provided for in the Underwood bill.

But whatever the action of the committee on finance, the majority leaders profess a hopeful feeling that they will least two votes to spare in the majority in favor of the measure.

Some of the district farmers' unions interested in cotton and wool growing are trying to prevent the transfer of their products to the free list or a reduction in the present tariff rates on those products by persuading Democratic senators to remain out of party caucuses called to consider the terms of the Underwood bill. These organizations are proceeding on the theory that Democratic senators who remain away from the caucuses will be free to act as they please when the bill comes up for consideration in the senate. Concerted action along this line was agreed upon at a conference of the Farmers' union from southern states, held in New Orleans not long ago.

Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio (Rep.) has given out a prepared interview, in which he expresses surprise that greater interest has not been aroused over the pending tariff bill, which, he asserted, would create changed conditions vitally affecting the welfare of the country. Senator Burton admitted that material reductions in the present duties on many articles would be for the country's good, but he contended that the changes now proposed "are too drastic and are not based upon any well considered or well defined principles. For one thing, the changes were too sweeping," he said, and that "notwithstanding a contrary impression prevalent in the country, the tariff act of 1909 (the Payne-Aldrich law) provided for lower duties than those theretofore in force."

This was proved, he said, by a computation of the duties actually levied during the operation of the act. The duties collected in the last fiscal year, said Senator Burton, showed a decrease of more than 9 per cent on dutiable goods and more than 19 per cent on dutiable and nondutiable articles combined, as compared with the experience in the last fiscal year that the Dingley tariff was in operation.

COLUMBUS ATHLETICS COULD NOT STAND PAGE

TREATMENT OF VISITORS THE SAME AS LAST YEAR

Washington Athletics Victorious in Unusually Interesting Game Attended by 1200 Enthusiasts Yesterday Afternoon—Hagerty's Home Run Drive Was Feature Play of the Game.

In the presence of the largest crowd of the season, the Columbus Athletics again bit the dust in defeat at the hands of the Washington Athletics in the local diamond wonder contest, with the final score standing in favor of the home team.

It was an interesting game, from beginning to end, and a good one for Columbus, seeing that they had their first inning, by making two hits and the assistance of two errors. It looked as if they were going to win, but they took the hit in their first inning and ran away with the game, following up three runs in the second. Columbus again came to life in the fifth, and had things going for them until the seventh when Hagerty, first man up, caught one of McDonald's handsome liners and drove it under the canvas, making a home run with ease.

Ogle came next and singled. He was followed by Reno, who did likewise. Pine came next with a good hit, scoring Ogle and Reno.

It was at this juncture that the Columbus manager decided it was time to send McDonald to the bench, and did so, putting in Burr in his place, and Burr retired the team in order.

Burke, the new third baseman, who was being tried out, was replaced by Ogle in the 7th inning. Runnels covered the second sack like an old veteran. The batting of Reno and Hagerty was exceptionally good.

This is the third time the Columbus and Washington Athletics have clashed, and it has always been the same old story—Washington taking the game.

BALL AND BAT NOTES

There is joy in Gotham now that Christy Mathewson has rounded into form.

Rumor has it that Jimmy Sheppard will be the next boss of the St. Louis Cardinals.

Hughie Jennings claims that rookies pitch better ball in the spring than the veterans.

Gus Williams, the Browns' young outfielder, is one of the best fielders in the country.

Chick Gandil's excellent batting is helping the Senators to be a factor in the pennant race.

Manager Griffith picks the New York Giants to win the flag in the National league and the Senators in the American.

A slight cold in a child or a grown person holds possibilities of the gravest nature. Croup may come on suddenly in the night, bronchitis or pneumonia may develop, and severe catarrhal troubles and consumption are possible results. Foley's Honey and Tar Compound nips a cold at the outset, cures croup quickly, checks a deep-seated racking cough, and heals inflamed membranes. It does not constipate and contains no opiates. STRIKE-OUT RECORDS

Twirlers of Eastern Clubs Excel Those of West.

New York Team Has Furnished King in Seven of Last Sixteen Years—Chicago Supplied Two in Jeff Overall and Beebe.

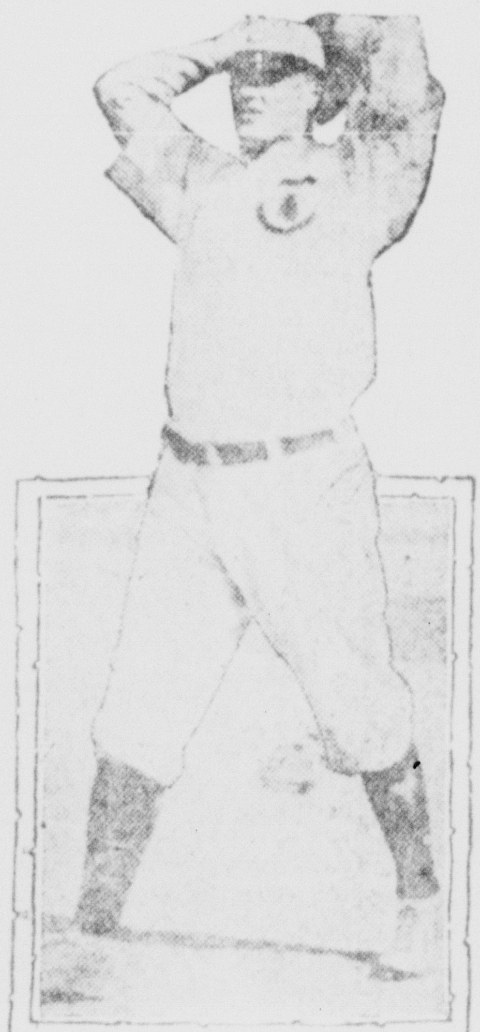

Inspection of the pitching records of the National league for the last sixteen years develops the fact that the leading strike-out artist has generally been a member of one of the eastern clubs.

Only during five campaigns from 1897 to 1912, inclusive, did a western team appear in the game after hitting nothing, but atmosphere. Frank (Noodler) Hahn of Cincinnati twice was the strike-out king of the National league. "Rube" Waddell of Pittsburgh once enjoyed this honor, and so did Fred Beebe during a campaign when he were the liveries of both the Chicago and St. Louis clubs.

The Chicago club, after an absence of a year, was the hero in 1909.

The New York club has supplied the strike-out king in seven of the last sixteen years. Christy Mathewson having been the leader during five campaigns. Richard Marquard in one and J. Bentley Seymour in one. Matty hung up the high mark in strike-outs for a season in 1903, when he shifted 267 of his adversaries. The previous best record was 249, made by Seymour in 1898.

The Phillies have twice furnished the senior league with its Walter Johnson. Earl Moore led in breezing men in 1910 and Grover Cleveland Alexander was the hero last year. Below will be found a list of the leading strike-out pitchers in the Na-

QUAKER CITY FANS REJOICE

Both the Athletics and the Phillies Are Displaying Great Form—Pennants Seen.

There is a strong hope in the breasts of the Philadelphia fans that the world's championship series will be fought out in the Quaker City next fall between the Athletics and the Phillies. Connie Mack's team has given evidence that it will be a formidable contender for the American league pennant. The majority of the critics concede that it is stronger than ever. The Phillies have also shown great speed at the start off and may put a figure in the National league pennant fight. The Phillies on paper appear about as fast as any team in the league, but somehow or other they do not appear able to put forth their best strength. Last season they were picked as the team to give the Giants the hardest fight, but injuries to star players and reversal of form of their pitchers were causes that resulted in their downfall. This season, with the good run of luck, the Phillies may come up to the expectations of their friends. If they do Charley Doan will be hailed as among the greatest of managers.

CINCINNATI BOOSTERS ON ONE OF THEIR TRADE EXCURSION TRIPS

QUEEN CITY
A NEW CITYOLD IN YEARS BUT YOUNG IN SPIRIT AND INDUSTRIAL ACTIVITIES.

POPULATION IN TWO STATES

Cincinnati Many-Sided and the Center Not Only of Industry and Commerce, But of Art, Music and Culture, and a Charming City to Visit.

A new Cincinnati.

This is what the visitor to the Queen City finds to-day. A city old in years but young in spirit, a city founded on the solid rock of commercial integrity and industrial efficiency, a city roused to a realization of its splendid strategic position, at the very heart of the country's distribution of population, a gateway between the North and the South, a natural transportation center on a great waterway highway to the Panama Canal; a city that has overthrown old conditions and is to-day making splendid strides toward very first rank among American communities.

No federal census can ever give Cincinnati credit for the population to which it is entitled, for it is really a community spread over a dozen different corporate municipalities in two different states, the center of a district with a population of approximately 600,000 people within a ten mile radius.

Solid Financial City.

But population alone does not make a city, and it is the ambition of Cincinnati to build the new city along lines that will give its citizens more happiness and prosperity per capita than is found in any other city in the country. Cincinnati to-day enjoys a better credit than nearly any other municipality through its ownership of the Cincinnati Southern railroad, the only railroad owned by a city in the United States, and by reason of other valuable municipal assets. It has always been a solid city financially and has never suffered seriously from panics or financial depressions.

It is curious that a city which has had to suffer from the charge of being the "worst governed city in the United States" should be really doing more to-day for the common good of the masses of its people than perhaps any other city of its class. At a conference recently held at Philadelphia, devoted to better housing and improved public health, it was shown that Cincinnati leads all American cities in the lowness of its typhoid fever death rate and is the only American city which compares favorably with European centers of population in this respect. This is due to the new twelve million dollar waterworks system installed in Cincinnati in 1907. Cincinnati is now following up this work for better public health in many directions, having attacked vigorously its housing problem and working to create a reform in this direction. It has established a most rigid inspection of its food; it is providing medical inspection for its school children, free clinics and dispensaries of many kinds, public bath houses, and other modern improvements.

Within the last five years Cincinnati has rebuilt practically its entire school system and has stepped from an undesirable position in the matter of education to very first rank as an educational center. It is the only city in the United States having a public school system ranging from the kindergarten at one end to the municipal university at the other, the first city to establish a co-operative engineering course and the first city to adopt the German idea of continuation schools, through which factory apprentices who otherwise would be denied educational help beyond minor grades are enabled to supplement their fragmentary education.

Cincinnati has just completed the largest office building in the world, outside of New York, the new Union Central building, which is to be the home of the Cincinnati Chamber of Commerce, now one of the largest commercial organizations in the country. The chamber of commerce has consolidated with itself several other organizations and increased its membership within the past year from 800 to 2,000.

Skyscrapers Erected Since 1900.

All the skyscrapers in the downtown business district of Cincinnati, with one exception, have been built since 1900. Building construction in the past ten years was twice as much as the record of the previous decade, and in one year building construction showed an increase of 323 per cent over that of 1909. Millions have been spent by the railroads for new improvements. Millions have been invested in new factories, whole industrial communities have been developed. Within ten years the bank clearings have increased 65 per cent, manufactured output 58 per cent, postoffice receipts 93 per cent, and property values 145 per cent. Cincinnati has added within the past year more than one thousand acres to its park area, and is developing a great system of parks, boulevards and playgrounds that, taking advantage of Cincinnati's naturally picturesque location, will make it one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It has taken over the unused end of the old Miami and Erie canal and is going to make it into a boulevard and subway for interurban roads, which improvements, including the interurban entrance, will cost eight to ten million dollars.

Within the past two years eleven million dollars have been spent or contracted to be spent for public improvements, including $3,000,000 for a new sewer system, $2,500,000 for a new court house, $1,750,000 for parks, $2,000,000 for a new general hospital, $250,000 for a new tuberculosis hospital, $250,000 for a convention hall, $550,000 for the University of Cincinnati and $600,000 for street improvements.

Practically every human want can be supplied in Cincinnati either from among the products of its nearly 2,000 factories or from the jobbing houses established there by reason of Cincinnati's great advantages as a distributing center. There is perhaps no city in the United States that is so solidly established as a manufacturing center and whose prosperity depends so little upon any one particular industry.

In Cincinnati's factories nearly 100,000 people are employed and the manufactured output according to the factory census of 1910 was $260,000,000.

Ideal as a Shipping Point.

A study of the map of the United States with special reference to the distribution of population and the location of leading centers will show that Cincinnati is almost ideal as a shipping point. Cincinnati is the center of 200,000 miles of first class railways, is located on the Ohio river and is only 100 miles distant from the center of population. The consuming markets of the country are within easy reach. A manufacturer located in Cincinnati can reach a larger number of consumers in less time and at less average expense for freight and express charges than from any other industrial center. As a jobbing center, Cincinnati has a great many large and strongly established houses, especially in dry goods, millinery, clothing, shoes and groceries, these being the staple lines.

and in addition having houses handling practically every sort of merchandise.
